CWJCGC Volunteer Spotlight

1. Why did you decide to volunteer for the CWJCGC?

I had previously been involved in a women's ministry called Aglow, I greatly benefited from the fellowship and edification in the Lord. There wasn't an active local Aglow in our community, so when I searched online I came across CWJCGC twice. I thought that would be a nice place to give back unto Him. My focus has always been outreach ministry.

2. What do you hope to gain from your experience with CWJCGC?

I truly benefit from being among women who are walking in the Lord, it strengthens my walk and keeps me accountable and I am also learning newness about God's grace daily, I also had a mentor and I believe every woman can benefit from a mentoring relationship that stirs the gift.

3. What is your area of expertise with the CWJCGC?

I facilitate the parenting skills class that focus on early childhood education.

4. What is your profession?

At this time I am a consultant for day care owners and home/family day care providers. I train staff, observe settings and create plans of actions, buy materials, educate parents as a certified parent educator and other technical assistance. It is hopeful that one day in our country all businesses that care for small children will be accredited and use best practices for our children.

5. What would you say to someone interested in becoming a CWJCGC mentor?

I would say it is a blessing to give and there is a need for Christians to look at the unchurched and meet the needs by being a conduit of God's love. I would say Jesus went outside the camp and we should too.
